

who these should be, but declares they should be men of the highest practical experience. He said:

The Territory is great in

hence."

Alyn Williams, president of the Royal Society of Miniature Painting of England, and ranked highest of the artists on ivory in Great Britain, has painted miniatures of His Majesty Edward VII, and Her Majesty Queen Alexandria, for the Gulid Hall, of London, and has now come to America to paint the miniature of President, Boosevelt. It doesn't require a 19-foot canvass to depict all the important points in our President's features, Mr. Williams says. By condensation, strength may be made almost transcendent.

Alyn Williams, president of the mesomething."

And so the good old custom was abolished, but now the ladies of the present Cabinet circle are saying they are getting tired of hearing constantly of the Cieveland Administration, and are thinking very seriously of reviving the practice of serving refreshments.

Mrs. Fairbanks, wife of the Vice President, though not strictly of the Cabinet, has her day also on Wednesdays, and she has, ever since her husband's election, served refreshments at band's election, served refreshments at hink much of the custom all sorts of people have fallen into of running up there the first thing they get in town the strictly of the Cabinet, has her day all to be charming and interesting.

"No I thank you." says the Government, "no more Jamestown Exposition in mine." The Jamestown Exposition people, after failing to pay the Government loan of $999,000, which it owes, and having kicked out the Presidence of yair to be charming and interesting.

"No I thank you." says the Government.

"Mrs. Fairbanks receives at one end of seeing heir names in the papers next day. None of that for mine. And I like the President, too.

"Why did I quit the ring? Well, I'll owes, and having kicked out the President of the social oscience of the first thing they get in town, just so they may have the gratification of seeing heir names in the papers next day. None of that for mine. And I like the President, too.

"Why did I quit the ring? Well, I'll owes, and having kicked out the President of the social oscience of the first thing they get in town, just so they may have the gratification of seeing heir names in the papers next day. None of that for mine. And I like the President, too.

"Why did I quit the ring? Well, I'll owes, and having kicked out the President of the first thing they get in town, just so they may have the gratification of seeing heir names in the papers next day. None of that for mine. And I like the President, too. someone as Director General, or So-Arab, near-Cairo indecency, and all that, but excepting the locality itself. "It is more than probable that Senathat, but excepting the locality itself, there is not an earthly thing to call one to that bit of sandy pine-poor section of country. The Exposition, failing to get Government protection, has decided to open anyhow next year. As there is no provision for taking care of the Government display after November 30, it will all be boxed and brought back to Washington. It is stated by conservative people who had no connection with the war of the rebellion.

"It is more than probable that Senative of the Celected to the United States Senate and will defeat Gov. Cummins," said William G. Dows, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the New Willard. "Both have a great many friends in the State, but the long and honorable record of Senator Allison—extending over more than 36 years—back to Washington. It is stated by conservative people who had no connection with the war of the rebellion.

The will all be boxed and brought has endeared him to the people of Iowa and makes it almost impossible to defeat him. It is likely that the contest, there is no to a like of the Country of the defeat Gov. Cummins," said William G. Dows, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the New William G. Dows, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the New Willard. "Both have a great many friends in the State, but the long and honorable record of Senator Allison—extending over more than 36 years—back to Washington. It is stated by conservative people who had no connection with the war of the rebellion. The provided that Senator's word of the defeat Gov. Cummins," said William G. Dows, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the New William G. Dows, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the New William G. Dows, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the New William G. Dows, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the New William G. Dows, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the New William G. Dows, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the New William G. Dows, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the New William G. Dows, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the New William G. Dows, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the New William G. Dows, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at the New William G. Dows, ually it began to disappear, and now it defit. The President is going to Montpeller, a little bit of a town near Charlottesville, Va., the former home of President Madison. The remainder of the family will probably stay at home and eat dinner at the White House with a few intimate friends.

Senator Scott, of West Virginia, is pessimistic about the Panama Canal. He is in favor of calling in one or two prominent engineers from civil life to advise with the army engineers who has been experienced by the highest practical who these should be, but declares they who these should be but declares they who hese should be but declares they were securely locked in the valid under the eagle eye of the Superintendent of Printing.

At the Print Shop it is said the recting up the President's message was broken this year.

Senator Scott, of West Virginia, is pessimistic about the Panama Canal. He does not specify who these should be but declares they but declares they was no blaze, however, the fremm fire.

There was no blaze, however, the firement of the supportant under the eagle eye of the Superintendent of Printing.

At the Print Shop it is said the recting the the daily under the eagle eye of the Superintendent of Printing.

At the Print Shop it is said the recting the eagle eye of the Superintendent of Printing.

At the Print Shop it is said the recting the eagle eye of the Superintendent of Printing.

Bishop Freguson preached one of the printing.

Bishop Cranston, of New Washing will include the prin was a time when the President probably would have vetoed any bill permitting either New Mexico or Arizona to enter the Union, and largely for that reason the two Territories were combined as one Commonwealth in the hostess whose hot chocolate or tea.

population. The people were anxious that it should become a State when the proposition to join with Ariwhen the proposition to join with Ariheard at the home of a former Secrelike in the mother right soon. She we guests who frequent Cabinet houses bitterly when taken from a high-cla may be had from a conversation overheard at the home of a former Secredidn't get it. when the proposition to join with Arizona did not zona was voted on, but Arizona did not agree. We have more population than many of the older States had when they started, but nothing as compared to what we shall have a generation to the transfer of the Treasury. A caller being approached by one of the young women of society, present to assist the hostess, and asked if she would be served to anything, replied: "No, thank you, asked him if he had called upon the owes, and having kicked out the Presiserved ices and cakes, with tea and tracism connected with it. I did not like the social ostracism connected with it. I did not like the social ostracism connected with it. I did not like the social ostracism connected with it. I did not like the social ostracism connected with it. I did not like the social ostracism connected with it. I did not like the social ostracism connected with it. I did not like the social ostracism connected with it. I did not like the social ostracism connected with it.

someone as Director General, or Social poo bah, who was obnaxious to the President, after having done all this and a great deal more, the Jamestown management actually has the check to come to the President and ask for Government assistance in keeping the exhibits open for another year. Now what do you think of that?

It would be funny if it wasn't ridicuble to the College of the Government and the president and the presid

Fred Harper, of Lynchburg, Va., a to show the cause of death.

tion, when chosen, if he wanted it, but he will not be a candidate."

Mr. Harper went on to say that Senator Daniel would be returned to the Senate when his present term expired.

"The attempt of State Senator Thomas, of Lynchburg, to oppose Senator Daniel," added Mr. Harper, "resulted in his own defeat at the hands of Senator sown defeat at the hands of Senator delect Halsey, who is a bright young lawyer. Had Senator Thomas not made

"The attempt of State Senator Daniel," added Mr. Harper, "resulted in his own defeat at the hands of Senator delect Halsey, who is a bright young lawyer. Had Senator Thomas not made

"Return Jonathan Meigs, third grand, who has arrived in Washington, declares that the masses of the people in the United States were never so rich as they are to-day, and at the senation with President Roosevelt for any currency legislation which may be needed for the adjustment of business conditions.

"The cotton, the corn, the wheat and the mean produced this year and now waiting." yer. Had Senator Thomas not made an attack upon Senator Daniel he might still be in the State Senate."

President Roosevelt's wish that the President Roosevelt's wish that the American school boy be instructed in American school boy be instructed in H. L. Wood, an olf-perfitor of Oklamarket because of the currency families. The National Rifle Association of America, in co-operation with the National Rifle Association of America, in co-operation with the National Rifle Association of America, in co-operation with the National Rifle Association of America, in co-operation with the National Rifle Association of America, in co-operation with the National Rifle Association of American Rifle Association Rifle Rifle Association Rifle Rif The other night at a dinner given to "Unele Remus," Joel Chandler Harris, gress. "My State produced more than at the White House, when the President entertained the kindly gentleman of Brier Bear and Br'er Fox fame, but she to have Mr. Taft as President. His to have on the question of free trade, and particularly free importation of the really "handsomest," but she looked handsomer in it than in most of the really "handsomest," but she looked handsomer in it than in most up to the work of the Tribes," he says. "The State will column that the tit still controls the Five Tribes," he says. "The State will controls the Five Tribes," he says. "The State will controls the Five Tribes." he says. "The State will controls the Five Tribes." he says. "The State will controls the Five Tribes." he says. "The State will controls the Five Tribes." he says. "The State will controls the Five Tribes." he says. "The State will controls the Five Tribes." he says. "The State will control the five that it it still controls the Five Tribes." he says. "The State will calm that the sit still controls the Five Tribes." he says. "The State will calm that the still controls the Five Tribes." he says. "The State will calm that the same rules and regulations as govern civilian rife clubs. This school boy movement will be in-augustated by a tournament, which the usual French touches of black it was not one of the Tribes." he says that it is also became the w tional Board for the Promotion of Rifle State

What's this? Governor Warfield able time in retaining the services of bined as one Commonwealth in the Statehood measure two years ago. But I think the President would not object to New Mexico entering the Union in the near future as a separate State.

"Why should it not be a separate State. State? The Territory now has only $754,000 of public debt, $50,000 having been paid off recently. It has $400,000 An idea of the caliber of some of the of the mother right soon. She wept and asked for her baby, but she

one of the other servants is getting President, knowing how well that high like having hospitality extended to me simply because I was a prize ox. My

It would be funny if it wasn't ridicu-form. The Exposition has been such a fake. Pretty, of course. It is locat-ed in a beautiful spot, the buildings are Embassador and that he has no inten-"I say I have not boxed. I have not even had on the gloves for exercise. I ed in a beautiful spot, the buildings are beautiful, there is no denying that, but tion of doing so, unless some situation to disrepute. I should develop later which will require his permanent presence in Maxico. He has just returned to Washington from variety, and there is the usual mock his home in Chinushua.

sistant Secretary and Mrs. Newberty, secretary and Mrs. Brownson, and Admiral and Mrs. Brownson, and Admiral and Mrs. Cowles.

United States Senator John Bankhad, of Alabama, has been having a pretty serious time of it with pneumonable time that he would respect to the condition of the great waterways of month, but is now out of danger. It was feared at one time that he would respect to the President and family will not spend Thanksgiving at Pine Knoi. Mrs. Roosevelt's Virginia plantation, this purpose to the President and family will not spend Thanksgiving at Pine Knoi. Mrs. Roosevelt's Virginia plantation, this purpose to the case of the Capitol the other day, residents on Capitol Hill feared that The President is going to Montpeller, a little bit of a town near Charlette, and the first time that this has happered since Roosevelt became President. The President is going to Montpeller, a little bit of a town near Charlette Side of the Capitol the other capital sides of the capitol was carried to the Prince of the Capitol the other capital sides of the capital sides of the capital sides of the capital soles of the capital does not express the gravity of the situation. When four two capital soles of the capital does not express the gravity of the situation to two capital and then the other capital does not express the gravity of the situation of two capital does not express the gravity of the situation of the president and good gracolously and then the other capital does not express the gravity of the situation of the president some that the capital does not capital does not capital the capital does not capital does not ment of Agriculture, which was destroyed by fire recently.

Prince George County. It was there cated

After completing his education Mr. Surratt took a course in civil engineering. Prior to the breaking out of the everal years in the Government Mail several years in the Government Mail Service carrying the mail from Texas to small points in Mexico. At the out-break of hostilities he immediately joined a company attached to the 1st in many fierce battles.

Mr. Surratt

Mr. Surratt was numbered among lered, for when the news was received hat Lee had laid down his arms at Ap pomattox. Va., the entire company o which he was a member fled to Mexico their purpose being to join Maximil an's forces during the uprising in the atter country. But here trouble was encountered, for Maximilian insisted on lecting officers for the troop, and rathr than submit to any such treatmen the company of Confederates hurriedly ook their departure. Desiring to again reside in the State of his adoption, Mr. Surratt after returning from Europe went to Baltimore, and after remaining there awhile secured employment with the Baltimore Steam Packet Company. where he remained until his death.

Senator Jacob H. Gallinger, of New Hampshire, believes that the States of New England will, for the most part, send uninstructed delegations to the next Republican National Convention. "This has long been the custom is New England, and it is likely that i will be followed next year," he declares.

Representative James F. Burke, of he 31st Pennsylvania District, who hails from Pittsburg, laughs at the idea of any dissension in his city or State in regard to the Knox boom, and declare that the Senator will have the united support of that entire State. He gave assurance that Theodore Roosevelt's successor in the White House will be Philander Chase Knox.

"Michigan will, in my opinion, send delegates to the next Republican Na-tional Convention who will be pledged to work for the renomination of Presi-dent Roosevelt," said Senator Julius C. Burrows, of that State, on his arrival makes a man give up some of his finer here for the opening of Congress. As sensibilities. I did not want to do that, conservative people who had no connection with the war of the rebellion. That one of the reasons for the failure of the Exposition is that the people made such a flagrant display of the made such a flagrant display of the rebel flag, that it offended those who have herefore thought very little about such things. The rebel flag decorated every thing at first, but gradulated a first, but gradulated a first, but gradulated a first, but gradulated a first which will almost impossible to defend the contest, that the contest, which will be fought out largely on the tariff issue. Senator Allison defending the present tariff schedules and the Governor advocating general revision."

Some matches of which could be distinguished in the early morning darkness. On striking some matches, to his surprise he discovered two mallard ducks, vainly trying to fly. These were easily caught, and in a moment three others were found, lying near, dead.

No marks were found on the first bedies to see thim again outlines of which could be distinguished in the early morning darkness. On striking some matches, to his surprise he discovered two mallard ducks, vainly trying to fly. These were easily caught, and in a moment three others were found, lying near, dead.

No marks were found on the first bedies to see thim again and in the early morning darkness. On striking some matches, to his surprise he discovered two mallard ducks, vainly trying to fly. These were easily caught, and in a moment three others were found, lying near, dead.

No marks were found on the first bedies to see thim again and the first head of the head of the National Governess to the head of the N found, lying near, dead.

No marks were found on their bodies for a certain man, because if that man should be found unavailable the delegation to the convention instruction. usily it began to disappear, and now it is said that not even a postal card can be found with the rebel flag on it. Though the Daughters of the Confederacy disdain any other flag in the restaurant which they have been running in the imitation home of Jeff Davis. Acts of that kind show how the lines are (not) fading out between the blue and gray.

Fred Harper, of Lynchburg, Va., a law partner and son-in-law of Senator has a said that not even a postal card can be found unavailable the delegation, Mr. Purcell came to the conclusion that the birds had been injured by flying against the monument in the darkness. It is said that on particularly dark or stornay nights many birds dash their heads out on the monument.

The Senator is pleased that his name should have been suggested for such an honor, as any man would," said Mr. Harper, "but he does not take it seriously. He regards it as pre-convention talk, which has been general before the present lack of officers. One of the present embarrassing fea- support. Who the second choice would and gray.

"Colorado will not be for Secretary This one. Of course, there is no doubt the Presidency," said Congressman-elect George W. Cook, of Denver, who is the Senator could have the united support of the delegation of the present embarrassing features of the present lack of officers in the Army is the fact that three regiments, under orders to go to the Philippines next year, are all short of officers in the Presidency," said Congressman-elect George W. Cook, of Denver, who is the second choice would the Army is the fact that three regiments, under orders to go to the Philippines next year, are all short of officers in the Presidential campaigns as well as the Army is the fact that three regiments, under orders to go to the Philippines next year, are all short of officers in the Army is the fact that three regiments, under orders to go to the Philippines next year, are all short of officers in the Army is the fact that three regiments, under orders to go to the Philippines next year, are all short of officers in the Army is the fact that three regiments, under orders to go to the Philippines next year, are all short of officers in the Army is the fact that three regiments, under orders to go to the Philippines next year, are all short of officers in the Army is the fact that three regiments, under orders to go to the President for another term will be it is difficult to tell. At the State Convention I think an indorsement of in the presidency."

Return Jonathan Meigs, third, grandson of Col. Return Jonathan Meigs, of Revolutionary fame, died at the home of his father in this city last week.

"The cotton, the corn, the wheat and the ment produced this year and now waiting to be marketed," said the Speaker, "are of the value of at least ten billion dollars, and the people who produced them are substantially out of debt. These products cannot start to be a support to be supported by the currency fam-

Questioned as to the currency legisla

Colorado, but that it is not believed he will consent to be a candidate for a with the will not be able to accompany the president and party on the Mayflower to witness the departure of the battle ship fleet from Hampton Roads.

The party as now made up will consist of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, Secretary and Mrs. Roosevelt, Secretary and Mrs. Newberry, velt, Secretary and Mrs. Newberry, admiral and Mrs. Newberry, Admiral and Mrs. Rowserry, adding and Mrs. Provided that it is not believed cities, notably Washington and Baltimore, cannot and Baltimore, will lose that testraint when they have had and will feel their new chants will lose that testraint which they have had and will feel their new chants will lose that testraint which they have had and will feel their new chants will lose that testraint when they have had and will feel their new chants will lose that testraint which they have had and will feel their new chants will lose that testraint which they have had and will feel their new chants will one that responsibility and independence. It is remarkable what an effect self-govern-banks. Mr. Cook summed it all up banks. Mr. Cook summed it all up banks upon a people. The whole state testraint when they have had and will feel their new responsibility and independence. It is remarkable what an effect self-govern-banks upon a people. The whole state will throw out its chest and on the President last week. Mr. Cook summed it all up banks upon a people. The whole state will be passed for during the fiscal year 1909. This con-templates work in the United States

What higher practical work for the said:

What high first force work for the said:

So work for the days for the said:

What high first force work for the said:

What high first force work for the said:

In turn 1922. The Government of the said:

What high first force work for the said:

What high first force work for

"War is becoming more and more a game of chess, a struggle of one mind gain-counter hats they are wearing. been called hence. gainst another, rather than a physical ight in which brute force wins,' the Shoreham. "The introduction of the set upon them, bellowing.

The two men ran for their lives, but out his policies, I am the man to do it." submarine, the war baileon, which will eventually develop into a flying-machine, the searchlight, with all their coattails. One of the fugitives powers of disclosing the movements of the enemy, and the telephone into modern warfare makes the struggle between in the ground.

The two men ran for their lives, but the rives, but the bull closed up and began hooking at their coattails. One of the fugitives made for a tree and shinned into it, while the other took refuge in a hole of the rives, but the bull closed up and began hooking at the property of the bull closed up and began hooking at the property of the bull closed up and began hooking at the property of the bull closed up and began hooking at the property of the bull closed up and began hooking at the ern warfare makes the struggle between in the ground. opposing forces as open as the moves on a chess board. The element of surprise which has entered into former wars, to a large extent, is gradually be made for him, and he bobbed in and long eliminated. Each commander will out as the bull shot back and forth, out as the bull shot back and forth.

when both are submerged. In the first place, the men on one of the subma"'Dang fool yerself,' he retorted, was the Altoona railroad yards. Years ine boats could not see the other boat; they could only see what is going on hole!"

above the surface of the water.

"This reduction of warfare more and fire, an of submarine and airships will un-doubtedly make the forces employed against each other smaller. Huge armies are hard to handle and to provision. Undoubtedly, too, the sacrifice of life will be less. Battles are fought and won at the Army manuvers as now onducted without the firing of a shot. Judges decide that one force has placed recognize this fact, too."

Mr. Bacon declined the offer on the ound, it is understood, that he preerred personally to remain in the State Department. Whether any other man has been offered the Embassadorship has not been disclosed.

Here's a story "they say" the President told while on his bear hunt in the Louisiana canebrakes: They were resting around the Presi-lent's camptire in the Louisiana canebrake. The dogs were asleep with the fatigue of the chase, the guides were ying around feasting their eyes upon the distinguished guest, and the President was enjoying the campfire as a portsman can. "Boys," he said, "did you ever hear Bob Burdette's bear story?"

"Wah Bob Bu'dette a b'ah huntah?" isked Guide Ennolds, "Not exactly," the President answer "Bob was a much braver man than bear hunter. He trailed bear in his youth, but when he grew older he be came brave enough to follow the lecure platform." t," the President continued, "but he sn't here, and I'll rattle around in his shoes a bit. There were two men go ing thru a field. A large and mean lispositioned bull waited until they had

SAMPLE CREAM SEPARATORS FREE

Without Money and Without Price, No Deposit, No Note to Sign and Not Even Your Promise to Pay. We Offer You A CREAM SEPARATOR that actually separates the cream from the milk by an automatic process that requires no ice, no chemicals, no labor and no extra machinery.

Owners of Cows all realize the reckloss extravagance an waste of butter fat, in caring for the creas and milk under the old process of crock and pans. Besides the money loss of the old process, there is the back breaking dradgery of washing pans and mil

PEOPLES AUTOMATIC CREAM SEPARATOR will stop this loss of Cream, money and valuable time. ARE YOU KEEPING COWS FOR PROFIT? If they are not paying we can make them pay. If we can increase the quantity of your cream from 15 pe come. The course is the paying we can make them pay. If we can increase the quantity of your cream from 15 pe come. The course is the course of the course of the course of the course from the cow unaffected by chemical action, that means more dollars to comes from the cow unaffected by chemical action, that means more dollars down it? If you you use the quality of your batter all the year through by giving you a harder, we often that will not stale or become sour, that means a great deal to you, doesn't it?

Peoples Supply Co., Dept. S, Kansas City, Mo.

ean Engle-Stars Six-Pointed.

ST. GAUDENS'S BIRD. Nay, nay, Miss Irish-American, we want none of ye hereabouts. We like much better the matronly lady with the purely American cast of features, the little mouth firmly closed, the high, Glory be! And have you seen the intellectual brow, the firm chin, the new $10 gold piece? The same that was designed by St. Gaudens, who is with the saints now, God rest his soul. It might be a buzzard, but no selfmate the other.

THE DESIGNS ON THE NEW GOLD COINS.

"At present there is no defense against a submarine nor any offense. One submarine could not attack another bobbing in and out desperately, but he or new with "off agin, on agin, gone died at her daughter's home, Tenley-town, last week.

Mrs. Queen was born in 1807, and lived more than 90 years in Tenley-town. She was a remarkable woman Finnegan."—C. E. Applebaugh, ex-emtown, last week. itself in a position to annihilate the other. Generals in actual warfare will friends by the hundred. Mrs. Queen's town. She was a remarkable woman faculties remained keenly alert until within a few hours of her death, and Robert Eacon, of New York, Assistant Secretary of State, was tendered the German Embassadorship and has beelined it.

She is survived by more than 100 state, was tendered in the survived by more than 100 state, was tendered in the survived by more than 100 states of Ashma states of A children, grandchildren. Senator Robert M. La Follette, of Wisconsin, in Kalamazoo on a scout for Michigan delegates to the next Republican National Convention, said:

"Beautiful recovered. He will mail, free, a trial bottle to any one who writes for it. It has cured quite a number of people who obtained the 'ree trial; is an absolute cure, perfectly safe and harmless, and so fortifies the assistant that the cure is PERMANENT. Address BR. W. H. WALRATH, Br. 553, Adams, K. V.

Isaac Rice, a submarine boat builder, at gained the middle of the field, when he "If President Roosevelt Insists upon breathlessly. 'Thar's a bear in this ago a division boss by the name of Flanegan had under him the boss of a One of the guides threw a log on the subdivision, called Finnegan. Whenever "This reduction of warfare more and fire, an owl hooted off in the timber, a car, engine or train would jump the nore to an exact science and the use and there wasn't a nature faker within track in his subdivision Finnegan would write up a very voluminous account of Mrs. Ellis Queen, the only woman future. Finnegan, obedient as are most centenarian resident of the District, of Erin's sons of toll, did so, and on the occasion of the next jump-off came the ploye Pennsylvania Railroad, Juniata,

"The bull made for the man in the Service, Department of Agriculture.

Origin of the Phrase.

COMRADE:

If you need a Pension Attorney or someone to represent you before the Government Departments address R. W. Shoppell & Co., Washington, D. C., and you will receive a prompt and courteous reply. WIDOWS' and MINORS' CLAIMS a SPECIALTY.

American Flags.

The guides didn't know this lastnamed beast, but they smoked their pipes in confidence of its terrors,
"Bob's bear story needs Bob to tell
Opportunity to Secure a Handsome Flag. Opportunity to Secure a Handsome Flag.

We have a lot of flags of most unusual goodness for such moderate prices. They are a cotton bunting with bright, oil-boiled dyes that will stand the weather and maintain their freshness. They look quite as well as the flags of real bunting. Cannot be distinguished from them, except on close inspection, and are very much cheaper. 21/2x4 feet, soft cloth, fast color flag. Price, 75 cents. With The National Tribune one year, $1.25 3x5 feet, soft cloth, fast color flag. Price, 90c. With The National Tribune one year, $1.40. 4x6 feet, soft cloth, fast color flag. Price, $1.00. With The National Tribune one year, $1.50.

5x8 feet, soft cloth, fast color flag. Price, $1.50. With The National Trib-THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE, Washington, D. C.